

THE DIOCESE OF HARRISBURG

Camp Kirchenwald, Lebanon County

The Diocese of Harrisburg holds an annual 1 week residential summer camp for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities at Camp Kirchenwald in Lebanon County. The program is for adults (ages 18 and older) with a primary diagnosis of mild to moderate intellectual and developmental disabilities who enjoy group activities and have no severe behavioral problems. Campers must be ambulatory and the camp is open to adults of all faiths.

About the Program

Activities at the camp are all adapted to the needs and abilities of adults with intellectual disabilities. These activities include:

- swimming
- canoeing
- hiking and nature study
- sports
- games
- arts and crafts
- fishing

In addition, campers will participate in evening activities in a beautiful multi-acre wooded setting.

Camp Staff

The camp is staffed by trained volunteers. The camp is staffed by 2 full-time registered nurses. Volunteers are always needed! Full-time staff are desirable, arriving late in the afternoon on Saturday and staying until noon on Friday. No experience is necessary, but those with experience in working with people with disabilities are especially welcome. Attendance at training is required for all volunteers.
